

ENDLESS MOUNTAIN MUSIC FESTIVAL

2010 Schedule

July 31st, Opening Night- Wellsboro High School, Wellsboro, PA
Festival Orchestra Concert- "Tango Time & Elvis in Wellsboro!"
Featuring Marcelo Nisinman, Bandoneon & Rodney Mack, Trumpet
Welcome the fifth season of the EMMF with an opening night performance featuring one of our past favorites, Marcelo Nisinman, "King of the Tango" on the Bandoneon. Tonight he will present his arrangement of Piazzolla's "The Four Seasons", highlighting a dedication to his father: "Adios Nonino." You also won't want to miss "Elvis goes Baroque," performed by our Festival Orchestra.
Sponsored by Penn Wells Hotel.

August 1st- Troy High School, Troy, PA
Festival Orchestra Concert- "Elvis Goes Baroque"
Featuring Rodney Mack, Trumpet
Weekend of Four Seasons continues...Trumpet virtuoso Rodney Mack shakes up the stage with the Festival Orchestra in it's performance of Peter Breiner's expressive composition "Elvis Goes Baroque." Following intermission, prepare yourself for Vivaldi's powerful "The Four Seasons."
Sponsored by Troy School District Foundation.

August 2nd- First Presbyterian Church, Wellsboro, PA
Chamber Music Concert- "Colors of Tango"
Featuring Marcelo Nisinman, Bandoneon & Doris Gulati, Clarinet
Experience the vivid hues of tango as Festival Musicians join Marcelo Nisinman to perform his tangos in this exciting chamber music concert. You'll want to get up and dance in the aisles!
Sponsored by Owlett & Lewis, PC.

August 4th- Holy Child Catholic Church, Mansfield, PA
"Homage to Gershwin"
Featuring Gregory Sandomirski, Violin & Bram Wijands, Piano
Gershwin composed many favorites that everyone will recognize. Our favorite team from Kansas City combines to perform this toe tapping Homage to Gershwin.
Sponsored by Citizens And Northern Bank.

August 5th- 171 Cedar Arts Center, Corning, NY
"Gershwin Meets the Salon Music of the Silver Screen"
Featuring Bram Wijands, Piano & Gregory Sandomirski, Violin
The Endless Mountain Music Festival takes a short trip to Corning and a long journey back in time. Enjoy this combination of the best of Gershwin and Silver Screen favorites from the 1940's and 1950's.
Sponsored by 171 Cedar Arts Center.

August 6th- St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Wellsboro, PA
"Salon Music of the Silver Screen"
Featuring Bram Wijands, Piano & Gregory Sandomirski, Violin
Allow this concert to transport you back in time to the golden era of movies!
Sponsored by WARD Manufacturing.

August 7th- Steadman Hall, Mansfield University, Mansfield, PA
Festival Orchestra Concert- "Brahms, Beethoven, and Dvorak"
Featuring Odin Rathnam, Violin
Experience the Great Friendship of Brahms and Dvorak, featuring Odin Rathnam in this radiant violin concerto of Brahms. The Festival Orchestra will present the happiest symphony that Dvorak ever composed, his Symphony #8.
Sponsored by Elite Therapy & Mulberry Hill Estate.

All Evening Concerts begin at 7:30 pm. All Sunday Concerts begin at 3 pm.

From Brahms to Elvis to the Silver Screen, there's so much to experience at the 2010 Festival...

August 8th- United Methodist Church, Wellsboro, PA
Festival Orchestra Concert- "Scotland Seen Through the Eyes of a German"
The Festival Orchestra will focus on the Symphony #3, "Scottish" by Mendelssohn. Always exploring exciting combinations, the Orchestra will perform Russell Peck's "Signs of Life" using jazz riffs & blues idioms to communicate with the audience.
Sponsored by Clarence & Sheila Prevost.

August 9th- Manley- Bohlayer Farm, Canton, PA
Chamber Music Recital- "Liz Landon & Friends"
Featuring Betty Landon, Violin & Elizabeth Landon, Flute
This concert features the artistry of a mother/daughter duo, performing at the historic Manley-Bohlayer Farm, an Endless Mountains Regional Heritage Park.
Sponsored by Rekindle the Spirit.

August 10th- St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Wellsboro, PA
Chamber Music Concert- "Schubert Meets Mendelssohn in Wellsboro"
Featuring Adam Mahonske, Piano & Odin Rathnam, Violin
Try to keep up! This will be a fast-paced evening featuring some of the finest musicians at the festival. There won't be any snoozing allowed during this vibrant exhibition of pieces from Schubert, Mendelssohn and more!
Sponsored by Wellsboro Imaging.

August 11th- Liberty High School, Liberty, PA
"Santiago Rodriguez!"
Featuring Santiago Rodriguez, Piano
One of America's greatest pianists brings Chopin and Rachmaninoff to Liberty, PA. Join us for what could be the most exciting piano performances you'll ever hear!
Sponsored by Spencer, Gleason, Hebe & Rague.

August 12th- Park Church, Elmira, NY-
Festival Orchestra Concert- "An Evening in Elmira"
Featuring Rodney Mack, Trumpet
Bohemian folk music and Elvis Presley's blue suede shoes swing through the beautiful Park Church with Dvorak's Symphony #8 and Peter Breiner's concerto grosso, "Elvis Goes Baroque," including "All Shook Up" & "Don't be Cruel."
Sponsored by the Corning Foundation.

August 13th-
First Presbyterian Church, Wellsboro, PA
Chamber Music Recital- "An Evening for You"
Featuring Festival Orchestra Members and Music Academy Interns
The evening's performance is selected by the festival orchestra musicians and academy interns as a special "thank you" to our wonderful audiences.
Sponsored by Ultra Petroleum.

August 14th- Wellsboro High School, Wellsboro, PA
Festival Orchestra Concert- "From Russia With Love"
Featuring Santiago Rodriguez, Piano
Santiago Rodriguez joins the Orchestra in the most popular and romantic piano concerto ever composed. Santiago & Maestro Gunzenhauser will recreate the electricity of their recording of the Concerto with the Berlin Symphony Orchestra in Germany.
Sponsored by Indigo Wireless.

August 15th- United Methodist Church, Wellsboro, PA
Festival Orchestra Concert- "Russian Fireworks Finale!"
Festival concludes with the Tchaikovsky Symphony #4- one of the most intense and colorful works Tchaikovsky ever composed. The first half will include the surprise of one of our interns in a brilliant violin concerto.
Sponsored by East Resources.

Schedule is subject to change*

All Evening Concerts begin at 7:30 pm. All Sunday Concerts begin at 3 pm.