

Endless Mountain Music Festival

JULY 31 – AUGUST 16, 2009

- World Renowned Musicians
- Chamber Music Concerts
- Meet-the-Artists Receptions
- Festival Orchestra Concerts
- Solo Recitals
- Performance Previews

The magic of music and the breathtaking scenery of the Pennsylvania Wilds combine at the 2009 Endless Mountain Music Festival, July 31 – August 16 in Wellsboro and Mansfield, PA and surrounding communities.

The festival features concerts with internationally and regionally acclaimed musicians in such diverse venues as Mansfield University's Straughn Auditorium, the Corning Museum of Glass Auditorium, the Tioga County Courthouse, and area churches.

Under the baton of world renowned conductor Maestro Stephen Gunzenhauser, both classical and contemporary music are in the spotlight, for over two weeks of entertainment.

The 2009 season will offer 14 concerts and ample opportunities to experience the region's spectacular scenery and small town charm.

For more information, call 570-787-7800, or visit the festival website at www.endlessmountain.net

Endless Mountain Music Festival

JULY 31 – AUGUST 16, 2009

570-787-7800
www.endlessmountain.net

Sample the Region's Magic

Experience the blend of scenic wonders and small town charm that inspired a music festival. Our schedule of evening performances allows ample opportunity for you to explore beautiful Tioga County.*

See the Sights

Visit one of the state's foremost natural wonders, the Pennsylvania Grand Canyon or hop on the historic Tioga Central Railroad for a scenic excursion. Pennsylvania's northern tier offers a host of sightseeing opportunities, with three state parks, seven lakes, and historic Rt. 6 to explore. For a change of pace, take a short day trip and tour the world famous Corning Museum of Glass or the scenic wine country region of the Finger Lakes in neighboring New York State.

Outdoor Adventure

Pack your hiking shoes and bring your bike! Tioga County's Pine Creek Rail Trail made U.S.A. Today's list of 10 great places to take a bike ride. Sparkling lakes, bubbling brooks and scenic trails dot the region. Hike, bike, swim, fish, or just kick back, relax and enjoy the spectacular scenery.

Shop

It's not your average shopping experience, and that's just the way we like it! Cozy up to a slower pace, with numerous small gift shops and antique stores, plus one of the nation's last remaining family-owned and operated independent department stores.

Guided tours and adventure packages available*

pennsylvania
STATE OF INDEPENDENCE

